SCENE 1

A camera crew is doing two solo interviews, one with the WINNER and one with the PERSON. The script cuts between their lines.

THE WINNER is watching an NBA game while scrolling the NBA app on their phone. They are scrolling through Copilot (AI) powered NBA insights and top performances.

Cut to THE PERSON.

PERSON

They're like some kind of NBA genius. It's like they have a sixth sense for who's gonna pop off. Like, how?

Cut to THE WINNER. They hold up a phone showing the NBA app, with Top Performance Recaps

WINNER

(Deadpan) Top Performance Recaps.

Cut to THE PERSON.

PERSON

"Contextualizing performances with trend data in real-time?"
What's that even mean?

Cut to THE WINNER

WINNER

(Annoyed) Live games with NBA insights.

I've told them, like, a million times.

(Sigh) The Copilot-powered AI features in the NBA app give me real-time updates to keep tabs on the whole league.

Cut to THE PERSON.

PERSON

Just wish they'd share their secrets, you know?
